

International interest is now directed to events in Siberia, where the situation has brought forward the question of Japanese intervention. This picture shows Bolshevik sympathizers rioting in Civilization street, Vladivostok, where great quantities of munitions belonging to the Allies are endangered by pro-German activities.

Copyright, Adachi

"On Guard for Liberty," by J. B. Bellecourt, brought to this country by a French mission, to be presented to President Wilson.

Photo by International Film.

Mrs. Despina Davidovitch Storch, arrested by secret service agents on the charge of being connected with German spy work, has been held for deportation to France.

Photo, International Film.

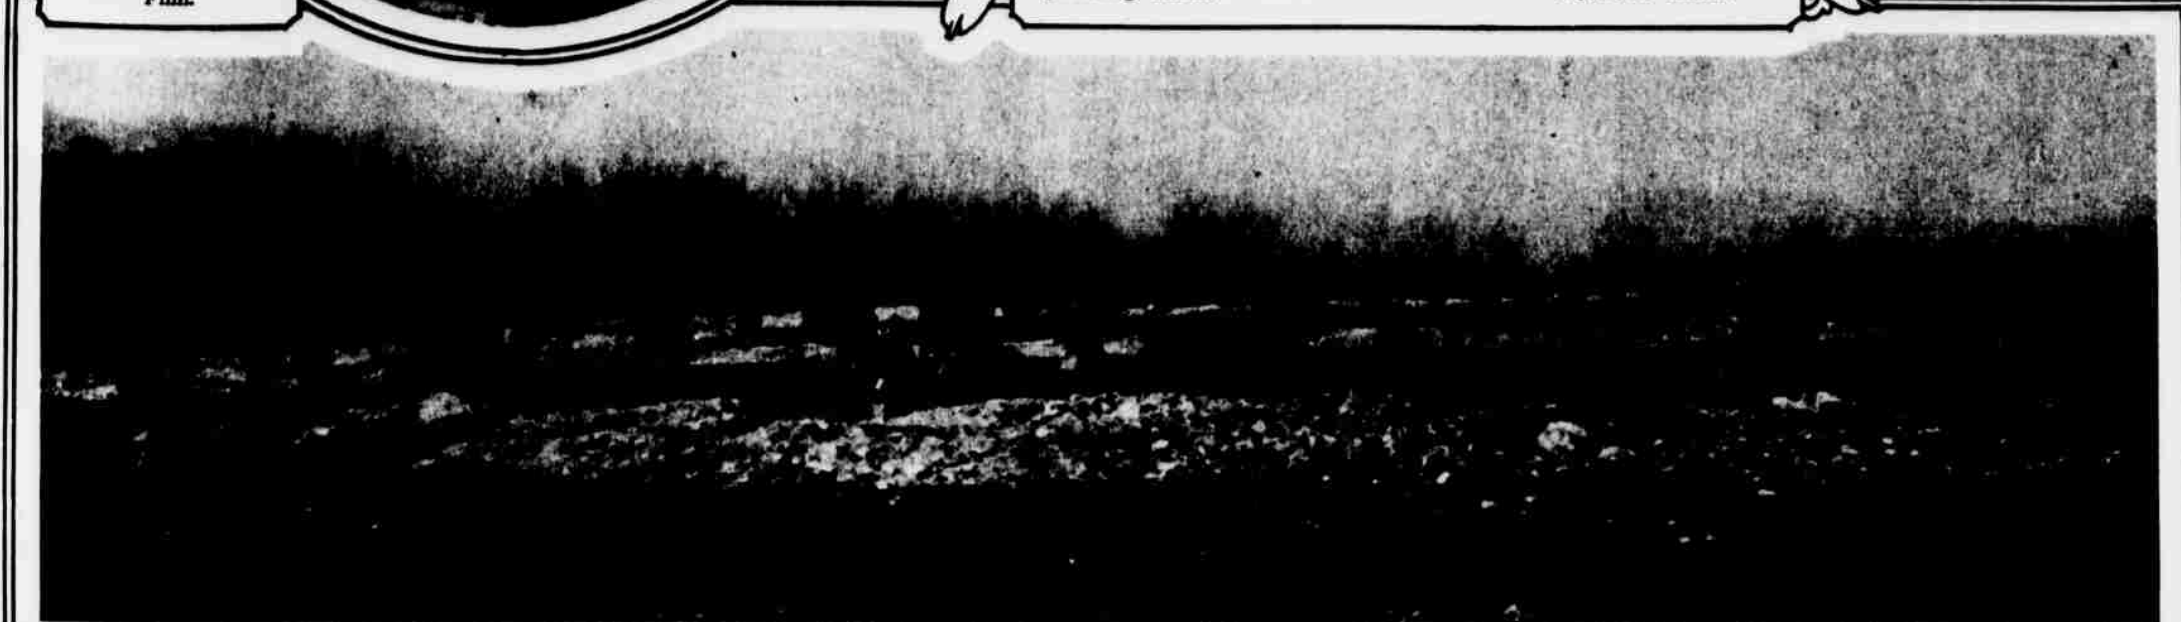

Parade of the Reds in Vladivostok passing in front of the Japanese consulate in a threatening demonstration. Many women joined the rioters and the police had a hard time quieting them.

Copyright, Adachi.

Lieut. W. Arthur Cunningham, U. S. A., of Sheepshead Bay, has been cited for bravery by the French Government and has received the Croix de Guerre.

Photo, International Film.

Out of the trenches and over the top at the Boches. French infantry starting out behind a barrage fire in an important local attack in the Somme district.

Photo, Press Illustrating Service.